“ Wolfgang had a longer, winding journey then most of us together to this day.

He had guts and was a warrior. I was proud to say my brother-in-law was a Viet Nam veteran like myself.

Wolfgang was successful and intelligent. We enjoyed drinking port wine and discussing everything. He would have your back no matter what.

Wolfgang was especially welcoming and generous. Wolfgang also was lucky. Lucky to find Sharon and they were lucky to spend their lives together. We don't always realize how important someone is in the balance of our lives until they are gone..

“ Wolf was a good friend and mentor. We lost touch in the years since I retired but I think of him often. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him and worked with him. My sincere sympathy goes out to his family and friends.

He was a wonderful, kind man smiling every time we would see him ...a genuine warm hearted spirit with a twinkle in his eye.

Wolf was not only one of the nicest people I have ever had the privilege to work with, but also one of the smartest. I too am sad that he passed before he got to enjoy his retirement. He will be missed by me and everyone who knew him. May he rest in peace, and my prayers are with his wife and family.

“ Wolf and i first met in the early '80s on a business matter and immediately became friends. His help then and since then had been invaluable to me and the company that would become BioReference. He was a great story teller and we shared many good times and now I will have many years of wonderful memories in his absence. Much of what i have become I owe to him. He will be missed a great deal.
