Yolanda Rutigliano, 96, of Jackson, NJ, formally of River Edge and New Milford, NJ, passed away peacefully at home on Sunday, May 17, 2026 with her family by her side. Yolanda was predeceased by her parents, Vincenzo and Concetta Micera, her sisters Catherine Pezza, Angelina Bookstaver and her brothers, Adolf Micera and John Micera, her husband Vito Rutigliano, and her sons, Vincent Rutigliano and Marc Rutigliano.

The matriarch of an adoring family, Yolanda will be missed by her children, Anthony Rutigliano and his wife Liz, Barbara Rutigliano, Karen Horn and her husband, Ken; her ten grandchildren, Michael, Robert, Brian, Richard, and Russell Rutigliano, Andrea Roe, Gregory, Jeffrey, Christopher Horn and Brianne Young and her ten great-grandchildren, Brooke, Megan, Chase, Robert, Gavin, Bennett, Sloane, Vincent, Stella and Sophia. She will also be missed by her best friend of 85 years, Madeline Policastro.

Yolanda was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister and friend who was loved by all who knew her and admired for her beauty, grace, generosity, fantastic sense of humor, interesting stories, impeccable style but mostly for her loving heart. Yolanda's incredible cooking was known to many. She always had ample amounts of the best meatballs, lasagna, manicotti, mouth-watering eggplant parmigiano or her infamous homemade pizza and everyone was welcome to enjoy it. "Put another plate on the table" was the line she spoke most often. She inspired many to be kind, find joy, laugh often and be true to yourself but most of all spread love.
